

Ana M. Guerra Martins – Judge at the European Court of Human Rights and Full Professor at the Law School of the University of Lisbon

Judge Ana Guerra Martins is a distinguished legal scholar and jurist, with an exceptional background in European Union law, international human rights law and constitutional law. Holding a Doctorate in Public Law, her illustrious academic career encompasses serving as a Full Professor at the Law School of the University of Lisbon. Additionally, she has had the privilege of being a guest professor at prominent institutions, such as the Sorbonne Institute of research in international and European law of the Law College of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne University, the Jean Monnet Law Faculty in Paris and Eduardo Mondlane University in Mozambique. Judge Guerra Martins has also made notable contributions as a member of the European Commission's European Network of Legal Experts in Gender Equality and Non-Discrimination. Her judicial experience is equally commendable, having served as a Judge at the Constitutional Court of Portugal. Presently, she holds the esteemed position of Judge at the European Court of Human Rights, reflecting her unwavering dedication to the legal field.