

Carlos Feijó - Full Professor of Law at the University of Agostinho Neto in Angola

Carlos Feijó is a distinguished jurist from Angola, with a Master's degree in Law (2000) and a PhD in Public Law (2011) from Nova University in Lisbon. He has extensive knowledge in public law, international transactions, corporate governance, construction and infrastructure and energy law. He is a Full Professor of Law at Agostinho Neto University and the founder of the Angola Centre for Corporate Governance. He was a State Secretary of the Council of Ministers in Angola, an adviser to the President, a Minister of State and the Chief of Staff of the former President of Angola. Prof. Carlos Feijó was also a Member of the Technical Commission of the Constitutional Law in Angola, a Vice-Minister for the Public Administration and was Legal Counsel to the peace agreement for Angola.